LINE IS SURVEYED

MEDICINE LODGE AND DODGE CITY CONNECTION OF SANTA FE

WILL BE AN IMPORTANT ROAD

Surveyors Completed Survey Across Ford County This Week

The Santa Fe surveyors will reach Dodge City tomorrow, completing the survey for the Medicine Lodge branch from the point to where it is already built to this place.

The survey as it is being made, crosses the Rock Island road on the main line at a point about four miles east of Dodge City, running from there on parallel to the Rock Island's Dodge City branch. It misses Ford City a few miles, and will connect with the Santa Fe main line a few hundred yards east of the stock yards.

The surveyors were a few miles east of Fort Dodge this morning, and they have been making about seven miles per day. This of course is the preliminary survey, and may be changed and probably will be. Some believe that the Santa Fe will take over the Rock Island branch and cut it across the river a few miles east of town.

If this is not the case the line, no doubt will be built up the north side of the river, at least from Dodge City.

The line will be one of much importance as it will be the connection with Denver and the wheat region of this part of the country with the Gulf.

STREET SPRINKLER DEAD

And It Ought to be Brought to Life Again Without Delay.

The street sprinkler is on a strike and the dust is taking the town. Mr. Rhodes, who has operated the sprinkler, says that some of the people refuse to pay for the service and that at the high price he has to pay for the water, it is no longer a paying business. The street sprinkler is one of the most important institutions of the town and the matter ought to be looked after by some one. It is probable that if some one would take the matter up a man could be found to handle the business, and if necessary a better fund could be raised to defray the expense. Some one should take steps to find who has refused to pay and if they cannot be induced to help, then to find some new ones to take their places.

RETURN FROM LAJUNTA

Trainmaster and Dispatchers taken to Lajunta Last Year Brought to Dodge City Again.

Last year a part of the office force of the Santa Fe at Dodge City was taken to La Junta, because it was believed by the officials that the work could be handled easier from that point. It was stated at the time that it would only be a temporary move.

The first of the week the furniture for the trainmaster's office was shipped back, and his force of four people returned to the Dodge offices, and in addition three dispatchers were returned from La Junta. Wednesday evening the chief dispatcher and night chief arrived, making in all nine people transferred back to this place.

When the force was moved to La Junta, Mr. Ruppert was the west end trainmaster. He is now with the Rock Island and the west end trainmaster is Mr. G. S. Woodward. His office force is chief clerk, W. L. Wiser; stenographer, Miss Lenore Borton; time keeper, Harry Fraser.

The dispatchers who come from La Junta are: day chief, I. O. Wilson; night chief, C. F. Colley; and Lyman Miller, W. H. Fisher and W. F. Wood.

"AD" FOUND THE BUYER

Brought Commission to Agent, Sold Land for Owner and Added Settler to County

The real estate men of Dodge City, or at least some of them, have paid little attention to the Dodge City papers. One or two of them have made combinations with a certain paper whereby they might use the newspaper transportation in violation of the advertising contract, but as for using them as an advertising medium they have claimed that the home papers are no good. If you will search the columns of some of the Farm Journals published east of here you will find among hundreds of other real estate ads, the names of some of the Dodge City real estate firms who do not advertise in the home papers.

A few of the agents here, however have done considerable advertising in the Globe-Republican, and among them, L. L. Taylor. Mr. Taylor recently made a sale of a section of the Hoover land in this county, directly through his advertisement in this paper. The buyer wrote Mr. Taylor that he had read a description of the land in the Globe-Republican, and that if the land was as good as described he would buy it. After being assured that it would be found just as represented, the man, who lived in Barton county, came here, saw the land and bought it. The sale of course brought Mr. Taylor a nice commission, and the other agents who had the same land for sale but did not advertise it, were the losers.

This morning Mr. Taylor received a letter from a man in Wisconsin, who had read his land list in the Globe-Republican. The man writes Mr. Taylor that he will settle in southwestern Kansas, and that he will be here later and will buy land in Ford county if there is any that suits him.

People who live in other states have sold Ford county land without the aid of agents, through advertisements in this paper. Here is a sample of letters we have received: "Enclosed find one dollar, being the amount due for advertisement that sold my land in Kansas. That was a pretty cheap commission for the land owner to pay and it shows the profit there might be in advertising, to the agent as well as to the land owner."

The fellow who has land to sell ought to list with the agent who will advertise it. If such an agent cannot be found, then it is a good plan for the owner to advertise it himself, and sell it himself.

NEW ROUND HOUSE

Contract Has Been Let for New Santa Fe Round House Here

The Santa Fe company has let the contract for a new round house at Dodge City and it is understood that the work will be started soon. All but three of the old stalls will be torn down and sixteen new stalls will be built, making in all nineteen stalls.

There has been an appropriation of $70,000 made for improvements at Dodge City, and probably over half of this sum will be spent on the round house.

Fine Funeral Car.

Clyde Zimmerman & Co., of the City Furniture store have just invested in a new funeral car and it is the finest thing of the kind in western Kansas. This is only one thing that shows the confidence and determination to succeed of this firm. They started in business only about two years ago with one hundred and fifty dollars worth of stock. Today they are not only equipped with all of the latest and best devices for successful undertaking work, but they have filled their store with a well selected stock of furniture, and have already built up a flourishing trade in that line. In fact the City Furniture Store has become one of the permanent fixtures in Dodge City, and is deserving of the good will and patronage of its people.

HUGGING TOURNAMENT

Prizes Awarded to Winners Among Railroad Avenue Spooney Couples.

The judges for the Hugging Tournament which has been in progress on Railroad Avenue during the past month, have made their decisions and awarded the following prizes. In reaching their conclusions, the judges have not treated hugging as a fine art, but have considered the amount of hugging in a given time, the readiness of attack, and the vim with which it was enacted.

The first prize was awarded to the young man dressed in a black suit, wearing black derby hat, and the heavy set young lady in white who sat on the court house wall on last Sunday night. All three judges voted that this couple began earlier in the evening, worked faster, and hugged more and harder than any young couple in the tournament. Gentlemen's prize, pair twenty pound dumb bells for further arm development; Ladies' prize, $3.50 Double strength "Hold Me Tight" corset.

The second prize was awarded to a young Dry Goods clerk and his charming partner. This young man's hugging was of the close and clinging variety, and what it lacked in strength was more than made up for in quality and the ivy vine simply isn't in it with the young lady of this couple. Prize, one bushel of peaches and three gallons of cream.

The third prize goes to the heavy set young man and the very tall young lady who sat on the retaining wall in front of the Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening, from 8:30 to 2 o'clock. This is the booby prize and was earned by the most desultory and amateur effort witnessed during the entire tournament. Prize, two popular novels and fifty cents worth of chewing gum.

The successful contestants may have the prizes by sending in their names and addresses.

Notice

Bids will be received for the exclusive right to sell melons in the city park during Reunion week.

DODGE CITY PEOPLE

Buy Land in Colorado for Future Summer Homes

While Mr. A. B. Reeves was in Colorado last week he bought an eighty acre tract of ground for a company of Dodge City people. The land will be cut up into smaller tracts for the purpose of building cottages for summer homes. It is located about fourteen miles above Boulder and Boulder creek runs through it. Probably none of the party will build this year but after the cottages are built the summer town will be a kind of addition to Dodge City at long range.

Some of the people who have joined in the project are: A. Russell, W. T. Coolidge, Dr. Milton, A. B. Reeves, M. W. Sutton, T. A. Scates, H. F. Millikan, H. A. Burnett, L. J. Pettibohn and L. K. VanHorn. More will probably be added to the population of the Colorado addition to Dodge City later.

FRONT STREET INCIDENT

Cow Boys, Bat Masterson and "The Ninety and Nine."

The following incident related by M. W. Sutton appeared a few days ago in the Hutchinson News.

"Thirty years ago about this time of the year I was sitting on a bench in front of Beatty & Kelly's place of business in Dodge City, Kan. I was in company with a young man about 21 years old, who was then sheriff of the county. We were personal friends as well as political friends, I being then the prosecuting attorney. The place where we were sitting faced the street, the railroad track being the other side and the street having houses on but the one side.

While we were talking three men came out of the Long Branch saloon some five or six doors west of us, mounted their horses and rode east on the street and when they had passed us they were "shooting up the town." The town marshal was absent and had left the young sheriff to care for and keep order in the town in his absence.

As they rode by shooting, the young sheriff, whose back was toward the street, turned in his seat and opened fire on them. He fired three shots two horses went down and the riders were promptly disarmed and put in the calaboose.

The young officer then impressed a saddle horse, there being many hitched nearby, and pursued the third man and found his horse about a mile east of town lying dead at the foot of the bluffs but no man. He had disappeared in the hills. The young officer had done all this without help and without scarcely a word.

The party that escaped met the stage coming from the north with the United States mail and one passenger—a woman. He compelled the driver to turn back and take him to his herd of cattle twelve miles away. He held his gun in his hand to enforce his orders. The woman passenger he compelled to sing all the way back. She told the writer afterwards that the only song she knew and could sing was "The Ninety and Nine," but that she sang it for the twelve miles faithfully.

Of such were the early days in Dodge.

The young officer was Bat Masterson, now one of the United States marshals in New York city.

For County Superintendent

The announcement of Mr. F. C. Woodbury for re-election to the office of County Superintendent appears in this issue of the Globe-Republican. Mr. Woodbury has made a good record in the office and so far as learned, he will be the only candidate for the position this year.

He has shown much interest in educational work and is considered one of the strongest educators in Western Kansas. He has the endorsement of the teachers of the county. In the resolutions passed by the normal institute held here in June the following endorsement of Mr. Woodbury appears: "We heartily endorse the administration of F. C. Woodbury as County Superintendent. We believe that under his efficient management, Ford county has taken rank as one of the foremost counties in the state in educational matters. We feel under lasting obligations to him for his kindness to us. We trust our relations as teachers and superintendent may long continue. We insist that our worthy superintendent become a candidate for the office of superintendent and we pledge him our hearty support."
